It was a trip I'll never forget. That summer my family was having a very challenging time. My father has just lost his job and it affected all of us. My dad, usually ~~is~~ funny and happy, stopped making jokes and caved in himself. It wasn't left without notice because my mom was very sensitive about everything, and family problems made her forget about herself. She did her best to cheer us up. ~~but it didn't help much.~~

I spent my summer holidays looking through the newspapers for the suitable job offer for my father but it turned out to be useless.

Employers seemed ignorant to me, and ~~was~~ I, a seven year old child, couldn't understand why everyone was so unfair to ~~us~~ ignorant to us.

One day, ~~(when everything felt like a~~ dissa) ~~on a usual~~ ~~an~~ August morning, my dad walked into the kitchen and said, "We are going on the trip". I was confused at first but it took me 5 minutes to pack my things^{up}. I knew we could^{not} afford a trip abroad but it was so exciting anyway.

We crossed ~~our~~ town's border by ? afternoon and stopped in the middle of nowhere. What I saw was so bewildering and bizarre at the same ~~for~~ time. Everything was so green. and the air was so fresh.

We spent that day walking around and taking a lot of pictures including this one in which you can see me and

Sadly, at some point it was the time to go home. I was heading to our car when my father stopped me and said, "Thank you for staying by my side at such a rough time".

When I woke up in the morning, my dad was not out at ~~the~~ home. ~~With the big smile on her face my mom told me that he finally found a job.~~ Turned out that he found a job.
