It was a trip I'll never forget. ~~that~~ It was a ~~hot summer~~ cold summer ~~that~~ year. Me, my dad and mom decided to have a family-bonding time in the wilderness.

My mom was a ~~very~~ gentle and kind woman with ~~long~~ blond hair. My dad, on the other hand, was quite strict and wore brown hair.

Before we entered the forest my mom told me:

- Stay close to us, okay?

- I will, - I replied instantly.

- Fair enough, - she said. But I, as an ignorant little girl, decided to have my own bizarre adventure instead.

Fifteen minutes after entering the forest I went my own way. At first it was pretty exciting; I was picking up berries and flowers. But later it became bewildering when I finally realized that I was completely lost.

I was walking around for a while in panic, screamed ^{shout} on top of my lungs but nobody came for me. I didn't give up ^{though} and ferociously started climbing up the tree. But it was an extremely challenging task for my short and weak arms. I finally gave up.

Suddenly I heard my name being called in the distance.
Exhausted I screamed shout for the last time:

- I am here!

My parents finally found me. All of us instantly embraced in a hug, even dad.

- I'm so confused! How did you even find me? - I asked.

- It was simple. We found a trail of berries on the grass, - ~~of~~ dad answered.

It looks like I was putting my findings in a pocket ~~with~~ ^{there had}
~~with~~ a hole ~~in~~ it. We laughed and cried, happy together.
I ~~never~~ listened to my parents.
